On The Cover

WWSF 19-840-“Miss MVP” our undefeated Champion Ewe, is emblematic of the sheep we strive to produce at Winning Ways Sheep Farm. She is long, straight, and correct with great substance, muscling and bone. She is wide topped with a great hip, yet remains extremely clean and extended up through the front. This very elegant female was sired by our “139” ram, an “RD” son. “139s” dam is a daughter of our outstanding Magen Shedden ewe. Miss MVP’s dam-13-840, also produced our 1st place senior ewe lamb(WWSF 18-840) at the 2018 National Show. 13-840 also produced the 2017 Champion Ewe at the All American Junior Show.

Since 1980, WWSF has won 11 National Champion Ram titles and now 18 National Champion Ewe titles, with three of them being named Supreme. Plus the 1976 Supreme was a Jones Bros. yearling ewe that was a part of the flock when we purchased an interest to start Winning Ways Sheep Farm. We demand consistent excellence from our breeding program, and we aim to think progressively while staying true to our roots of quality, complete, sound, eye-appealing Oxfords. Our philosophy has provided us, as well as our buyers, with a high lever of success. As shown in our ads over the years, our buyers have had outstanding success with Winning Ways sheep, and we have another fantastic set of 20 fall ewe lambs and 10 fall ram lambs to offer for the upcoming show and sale season. We look forward to seeing everyone again soon, and Happy Lambing!

The Edwards family with their elite flock of 40 Oxford ewes is no stranger to the sheep industry. They have shown 55 consecutive years at the Illinois State Fair. Breeding sound, correct Oxfords with exemplary breed character has always been the goal at Edwards Oxfords.

In addition to breeding the National Grand Champion Ram, they also won first place flock honors and the esteemed Premier Exhibitor award at the 2019 North American International Livestock Expo. Remembering Oxford icons such as Harry and Mary Bloome, past secretary of the American Oxford Association, and the many others who helped build the breed to its standing now, has been a driving desire for Edwards Oxfords’ breeding program.

Bill and Tom wish to thank all the breeders who have had a hand helping their program through the years. They also wish to thank Phantom Hills Fitting & Training for their outstanding job fitting and showing their sheep. Both Edwards Oxfords and Phantom Hills have sheep available at their farms.

Bill and Tom always have top of the line quality Oxfords for sale, plus a promising set of ram lambs are running in the barn. Give them a call, or come see their flock soon. You may reach them at:
