On The Cover

Isaacson 343 "Izak" was selected Champion Ram for both the Open and Junior Shows at NAILE. Earlier, he was Champion Ram for Rick Isaacson at the Wisconsin State Fair, and then was purchased by Bingen Oxfords and Winning Ways Sheep Farm. We were immediately impressed with his overall balance and make up, but especially with his outstanding up-headed and extended front. Thank you to Rick for selling us this outstanding ram!

"Izak" is sired by Sandoval 851, who also sired Isaacson 299, this year's NAILE Reserve Champion Ram, and numerous other strong individuals for the Isaacsons and Tony Weber. His dam is Isaacson 140 who has a solid pedigree strong in Lutz Oxford lines. Both Bingen Oxfords and Winning Ways Sheep Farm have promising young lambs by "Izak" and welcome visitors to come and view them.

While Jillian has exhibited at the NAILE Junior Show for years, this was her first venture into the Open Show and it was a most memorable one. "Izak" is another major piece in her quest to grow her ever-improving Oxford flock. She would like to thank Darrell, Melanie, and Darwin Hall for their encouragement and mentorship. And thank you to Sara and Kevin Kuykendall and their crew for applying their knowledge and expertise in the presentation of our sheep.

WWSF 17-13321A "Precious," our two-time National Champion Ewe, is emblematic of the sheep we strive to breed for here at Winning Ways Sheep Farm. She is long, straight and correct, with good substance and muscling. She is wide-topped with a big hip, yet remains clean and extended up through the front. Her dam is out of the WWSF 03-21 "Shazam" line. "Shazam" was our 2010 NAILE Supreme Champion Ewe. She is sired by a son of Double "O" Acre's "Real Deal."

Since 1980, WWSF has won 11 National Champion Ram titles and 17 National Champion Ewe titles, with three of them being named Supreme. We demand consistent excellence from our breeding program, and we aim to think progressively while staying true to our roots of quality, complete, sound and eye-appealing Oxfords. Our philosophy has provided us, as well as our buyers, with a high level of success. As shown in our ads over the years, our buyers have had outstanding success with Winning Ways sheep, and we have another fantastic set to offer for the upcoming show and sale season. We look forward to seeing everyone again soon, and happy lambing!
