On The Cover

On the cover of The Banner is the 2017 National Champion Oxford Ram, “Tanner” Reisdorf 1702 RR NN. He is a February born ram bred and owned by Jessica Reisdorf of Attica, N.Y.

Prior to NAILE, “Tanner” was named Champion Ram at the 2017 New York State Fair and 2017 Keystone International Livestock Exposition. He was also a member of our Supreme Champion Flock at the New York State Fair.

“Tanner” is sired by Reisdorf 1294 “Tucker,” our Champion Ram at the 2014 and 2015 KILE. His dam, Reisdorf 1510, also had a successful show career, placing third in the March ewe lamb class at the 2015 NAILE.

Special thanks to Tim and Stacey Gadsby and Travis Johnson for your help getting our sheep ready for NAILE, and to DJ Kile for your help at the New York State Fair.

Lambs and breeding stock are always available privately off the farm. Check out our website reisdorfoxfords.webs.com or contact Jessica at 585/297-7063.

WWSF 17-13321A “Precious” is emblematic of the sheep we strive to breed for here at Winning Ways Sheep Farm. She is long, straight and correct, with good substance and muscling. She is wide-topped with a big hip, yet remains clean and extended up through the front. Her dam is out of the WWSF 03-21 “Shazam” line. She is sired by a son of Double “O” Acre’s “Real Deal.”

Since 1980, WWSF has won 10 National Champion Ram titles and 16 National Champion Ewes, with three of them being named Supreme. We demand consistent excellence from our breeding program, and we aim to think progressively while staying true to our roots of quality, complete, sound and eye-appealing Oxfords. Our philosophy has provided us, as well as our buyers, with a high level of success. As shown in our ad, our buyers had an outstanding year with Winning Ways sheep, and we have another fantastic set to offer for the upcoming show and sale season. We look forward to seeing everyone again soon, and happy lambing!
