On The Cover

Featured on the cover is a fine example of the quality sheep Little Hooves Romneys strive to produce. Pictured, is the Little Hooves Romneys' Supreme Champion Ram at the 2017 Maryland Sheep and Wool Festival.

Little Hooves Romneys have been raising and showing sheep for 24 years. While they started as a 4-H project, Kenneth and Charlene Carlisle's love of sheep quickly became their life's passion, culminating in a flock of about 300 sheep. Over the years, they have been fixtures on the show circuit, active American Romney Breeders Association members and committed supporters of youth in agriculture. After first attending the Maryland Sheep and Wool Festival more than 20 years ago, they set their sights on two ambitious goals: 1. Winning Supreme Champion, and 2. being on the cover of The Banner magazine. This year, with their daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren looking on, their first dream was realized, as they were awarded the Supreme Champion Ram at Maryland. With the printing of this cover, we are thrilled they've knocked their second goal off the list, too!

Love, Justin, Emily, Jaime, Dave and the grandkids
